Part X Public Charity Status

Part X is designed to classify you as an organization that is either a private foundation or a public charity. Public charity status is a more favorable tax status than private foundation status. If you are a private foundation, Part X is designed to further determine whether you are a private operating foundation. (See instructions.)

- 1a Are you a private foundation? If "Yes," go to line 1b. If "No," go to line 5 and proceed as instructed. If you are unsure, see the instructions. Yes No
- b As a private foundation, section 508(e) requires special provisions in your organizing document in addition to those that apply to all organizations described in section 501(c)(3). Check the box to confirm that your organizing document meets this requirement, whether by express provision or by reliance on operation of state law. Attach a statement that describes specifically where your organizing document meets this requirement, such as a reference to a particular article or section in your organizing document or by operation of state law. See the instructions, including Appendix B, for information about the special provisions that need to be contained in your organizing document. Go to line 2.
- 2 Are you a private operating foundation? To be a private operating foundation you must engage directly in the active conduct of charitable, religious, educational, and similar activities, as opposed to indirectly carrying out these activities by providing grants to individuals or other organizations. If "Yes," go to line 3. If "No," go to the signature section of Part XI. Yes No
- 3 Have you existed for one or more years? If "Yes," attach financial information showing that you are a private operating foundation; go to the signature section of Part XI. If "No," continue to line 4. Yes No
- 4 Have you attached either (1) an affidavit or opinion of counsel, (including a written affidavit or opinion from a certified public accountant or accounting firm with expertise regarding this tax law matter), that sets forth facts concerning your operations and support to demonstrate that you are likely to satisfy the requirements to be classified as a private operating foundation; or (2) a statement describing your proposed operations as a private operating foundation? Yes No
- 5 If you answered "No" to line 1a, indicate the type of public charity status you are requesting by checking one of the choices below. You may check only one box.
The organization is not a private foundation because it is:
 - a 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i)—a church or a convention or association of churches. Complete and attach Schedule A.
 - b 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(ii)—a school. Complete and attach Schedule B.
 - c 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(iii)—a hospital, a cooperative hospital service organization, or a medical research organization operated in conjunction with a hospital. Complete and attach Schedule C.
 - d 509(a)(3)—an organization supporting either one or more organizations described in line 5a through c, f, g, or h or a publicly supported section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6) organization. Complete and attach Schedule D.

Part X Public Charity Status (Continued)

- e 509(a)(4)—an organization organized and operated exclusively for testing for public safety.
- f 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(iv)—an organization operated for the benefit of a college or university that is owned or operated by a governmental unit.
- g 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi)—an organization that receives a substantial part of its financial support in the form of contributions from publicly supported organizations, from a governmental unit, or from the general public.
- h 509(a)(2)—an organization that normally receives not more than one-third of its financial support from gross investment income and receives more than one-third of its financial support from contributions, membership fees, and gross receipts from activities related to its exempt functions (subject to certain exceptions).
- i A publicly supported organization, but unsure if it is described in 5g or 5h. The organization would like the IRS to decide the correct status.

- 6 If you checked box g, h, or i in question 5 above, you must request either an advance or a definitive ruling by selecting one of the boxes below. Refer to the instructions to determine which type of ruling you are eligible to receive.
- a Request for Advance Ruling: By checking this box and signing the consent, pursuant to section 6501(c)(4) of the Code you request an advance ruling and agree to extend the statute of limitations on the assessment of excise tax under section 4940 of the Code. The tax will apply only if you do not establish public support status at the end of the 5-year advance ruling period. The assessment period will be extended for the 5 advance ruling years to 8 years, 4 months, and 15 days beyond the end of the first year. You have the right to refuse or limit the extension to a mutually agreed-upon period of time or issue(s). Publication 1035, Extending the Tax Assessment Period, provides a more detailed explanation of your rights and the consequences of the choices you make. You may obtain Publication 1035 free of charge from the IRS web site at www.irs.gov or by calling toll-free 1-800-829-3676. Signing this consent will not deprive you of any appeal rights to which you would otherwise be entitled. If you decide not to extend the statute of limitations, you are not eligible for an advance ruling.

Part IV - Narrative description of activities

• Distributing Christian Training Materials (20%)

Each month over 100,000 pages of training material are viewed by people around the world on the www.foundationsforfreedom.net website. Time and money are spent on maintaining and expanding the large website. These and other materials are distributed throughout the world including Africa, Europe, South America, India and Asia through mailing printed copies as well as sending digital copies in the form of CDs and DVDs. Our sales come largely from people requesting our material in developed countries such as North America. BFF provides free material and shipping to leaders throughout the world. We recognize that many who lack quality training materials are from poor countries that could never afford such material and their associated shipping costs. Our goal is to expand this free distribution each year not only in the number of recipients but also in quality, kind and quantity of materials. In 2006 we have distributed more than 110 free BFF CDs around the world. Funding comes from honorariums, sales and donations from both churches and individuals. We hope to receive grants to provide training libraries and needed hardware in strategic places that will develop equipped leaders who will formally and informally instruct others.

• Developing Christian Training Materials (60%)

BFF has a vision of continually expanding the library of training materials. Paul Bucknell has kindly allowed BFF to freely use and distribute his writings, powerpoints and messages. This has enabled BFF to offer biblical training material in many practical areas of life such as family, marriage, anxiety, fear, anger, lusts, discipleship and leadership training. The Life Commentary on the Bible is also available as it is developed. Much time is spent formatting such material for the web and other media formats. Increased time and, perhaps, personnel will be required to expand into the area of DVD training, podcasts and video instruction. BFF hopes to expand its materials into different languages as well. Funding comes from honorariums, sales and donations from both churches and individuals. We hope to receive grants to help increase the quality and kind of training materials.

• Discipleship Training Seminars and other training/speaking (20%)

BFF not only provides biblical training materials but also involves itself in the instruction of others. In recent years this has required sending individuals overseas to countries like Singapore and or to different parts of America to speak at different conferences such as the Christian Leadership Renewal Center. We also sponsor leadership training seminars and provide BFF material translated into the local language. In 2006 three 3-day ADT seminars were sponsored in India. In 2007 we sponsored two 3-day ADT Christian leadership seminars in India and three in Malawi where more than 920 attended in total. Rev. Paul Bucknell was the instructor. When needed, food, simple lodging and assistance in travel fares are also provided for the attendees. A registration fee is required. In 2006 this averaged to $13/person in India for the 600+ attending leaders. During BFF training seminars, BFF sometimes meets immediate social needs including prayer, assistance in health costs, books, leper colony, flood victims, widows, etc. These contributions are through the local charitable and religious organizations that are familiar with our work and that we closely work with.

We hope to expand instruction by the provision of our free materials as well as inspiring, funding and the training of other leaders. We hope to see this training develop into actual training sites at places owned by others or by BFF itself. On a very limited and carefully selected process, we grant support to proven and qualified leaders that have a vision for the training that BFF is involved in. Funding comes from both churches and individuals, but we hope to expand this program by grants from foundations.

See accompanying documents on BFF website and overseas seminar activities.

We have not yet adopted a conflict of interest policy but are in the process of doing so and will very soon adopt one that is consistent with the sample in Appendix A.

Part VI - Individuals and Organizations that receive Benefits from BFF

Line 1a. Benefits to individuals

Equipping Leaders: We provide free training materials on the web, through free CDs and paid CDs with a discount to those in North America. We provide consultant and counseling sessions, usually without fee. Paul, for example, will dialogue with those responding from the web either on phone or via email. Public messages bring benefit to the attendees whether in parenting, marriage or anxiety workshops or in biblical messages at churches. We encourage, equip and sometimes fund others so that they can join in training others.

ADT Seminar attendees: We provide instruction and translated materials to those who attend our seminars. Sometimes food, assistance in travel costs and simple lodging accommodations are provided. (See part IV narrative).

Line 1b. Benefit to organizations

Mission: BFF provides instruction and training materials to churches and mission organizations around the world through our free CD program for full-time ministers in developing countries or with special needs. Limited funding is given to organizations who are ministering in a way that we ourselves might minister with a strong emphasis on practical life and biblical training. In that our ministry is often equipping leaders, we see that there is a strong overlap between leaders and organization. Strengthen the leader and the organization is strengthened.

Charitable: In association with our teaching ministries, we might give a gift to the charitable or religious organization to contribute to urgent health or social needs. Life Shine ministry in India and Scripture Union in Malawi are two examples. (See part IV narrative).

Part VIII - Your Specific Activities

• 4 Fundraising

Generally, we have been very quiet in regards to raising funds for BFF except for our overseas mission projects. This might change, however.

- Mail solicitations - some attention is given to our special needs especially regarding the sponsoring of the overseas leadership training seminars.
- Personal/phone solicitations - all current activity has been personal, large group meetings, telephone conversations with interested parties.
- Foundation/government grant solicitation - None currently active. In the future we will be applying to foundations.
- BFF accepts donations on its website.
- We are open to receive funds from other churches and organizations. Some churches now provide support.

• 4c Fundraising for another organization

BFF as a whole raises funds to establish other organizations such as churches and training institutes and individual leaders around the world chiefly through training and supplying training materials. This support is indirect. However, there are two ways that BFF might more directly raise funds for other organizations.

(1) BFF in its focus on developing training centers and training libraries will work closely with other churches and organizations. (See part IV narrative and 6a-b attached comments for expanded comments.) Up until now, we have not made any contract to raise funds for another organization as our involvement is one time and voluntary, that is, we give what has been received.

(2) BFF also, through the general sharing of information and needs of the places the instructors train, will mention different needs that were observed, whether it be needs of different organizations, social needs, infra-structural needs or equipment needs. We will encourage people to give to these one time needs. Up till now, these have been smaller amounts and for a one time need. Contracts have not been needed as they have been one time, small amounts and done on personal visits in foreign countries.

• 4d Fundraising by state

The web presence presently fundraises everywhere all the time, including each of the fifty states and around the world. Special fundraising is or hopes to be done in the following states. We expect more to be listed in the future.

State	For Self	For another Org.	By another
Pennsylvania	X	X
Massachusetts	X	X
New Jersey	X	X
Maryland	X	X
Virginia	X	X
North Carolina	X	X
South Carolina	X	X
Georgia	X	X
Florida	X	X
West Virginia	X	X

California	X	X
Ohio	X	X
New Hampshire	X	X
Maine	X	X

We hope others will also raise funds for us, but this is not yet happening.

• Part VIII 6a-b Economic Development

BFF will in a very limited way help the economic development of the particular areas where we hold training seminars. These funds have supported leper colonies, flood relief, evangelistic efforts, building or repair projects, etc. These funds are appropriate in that they enable us in brotherly love to show our concern for the whole person and for the people we serve. (See Part IV narrative).

• 10 Intellectual property

BFF makes sure that all the contributors for the distribution of their material are willing for their materials to be freely distributed, edited, translated and otherwise used for purposes the materials have been written. Paul J. Bucknell owns 99+% of the materials, in their varying media formats, along with the copyrights but allows BFF to freely distribute and market these materials for the overall benefit of the recipients and expansion of distribution. Paul has not received fees for this nor will he in the near future. This will be evaluated every three years. Paul is open as to how BFF produces, distributes and markets these materials just so the materials are getting to the people who need them. This liberal policy is designed to provide maximum benefit to those who will use them.

• 11 Contributions of real property

BFF will accept contributions of real property if either: (1) It can be used in its present state to accomplish the purposes of BFF or (2) If it can be resold and the cash to be given to BFF's funds. We will tell the donor that though we can try to use property in a certain way that they like, BFF might need to resell it to accomplish its purposes.

• 12a-d Foreign Countries

Our purpose is to further biblical training among those around the world. Not only are we present in each country through the website but also have and plan to visit many countries for the purpose of biblical instruction (See Part IV narrative).

• 13a-b Distributions

Distributions and grants are disbursed according to the purposes of our training ministry. BFF does not make loans. We provide funds for our training seminars and programs. (See Part IV narrative).

• 13c Contracts

Distributions have been personally overseen by the instructor. Due to the voluntary nature of the seminars, verbal agreements, and careful oversight of records, we have ensured that funds are being used for the purpose of BFF. Contracts have not been necessary. If a situation utilizes ongoing mutual commitment including financial commitment, we will use either a Memorandum of Understanding or contract depending on the situation which will further clarify responsibilities, purposes, expectations, ownership and other needed matters.

• Part VIII 13d Recipient organizations

BFF's intent is to bring further instruction to other places and countries rather than solely work with past projects. This is a list of recipient organizations.

- | | |
|---|-----------------------------------|
| • Life Shine Ministry - India | Voluntary cooperation on programs |
| • Oasis of Love Ministries International - Malawi | Voluntary cooperation on programs |
| • SCP International USA - Ukraine | Voluntary funding |
| • Scripture Union - Malawi | Voluntary cooperation on programs |

We have held instruction seminars in Singapore and intend to widen this global sphere of operation as appropriate. BFF needs to bring about clarity to those who receive her training materials, develop stronger relationships and encourage further training through instruction. Only by visits to foreign countries can we understand the needs for translation and instruction. (See Part IV narrative).

• 13e Records

We maintain financial records on the computer using accounting software and copies of all correspondence detailing any financial arrangements or restrictions on our distributions.

• 13f Selection

We develop a relationship with potential hosts of training seminars and ask a series of questions of each one, familiarizing both them and ourselves what our goals and concerns are in that particular region. Since we are personally involved in the project, we get to meet the leaders of the organization and closely work with them.

• 13g Oversight procedures

Each individual or group recipient is involved in his own nationally recognized organization. We require receipts and reports to validate proper use of contributions. A member of the Board of Directors makes visits and personally oversees the work.

• 14b Foreign organizations

See Part VIII, line 13d and Part IV narrative.

• 14d List of Foreign organizations

If a supporter earmarks a gift for a special purpose, we tell him, usually through correspondence, how the funds are used and ask if he still would like to contribute.

• 14e Grants

We have not made grants up until this point but only distributed funds to religious groups or charities in a given country, usually registered ones, with which we have personal prior knowledge of their leaders and ministries. See VIII 13f. Distributions meet special needs.

• 14f Foreign organizations

Verbal and video reports are provided to those interested in BFF activities. See Part VIII, line 13g.

• VIII-15 Close connections

We have close working connections. See Part VIII, line 13d. We do not have close family or business (profit) connections.
